

Energy Awareness and Healing 1 Day Training

by Red Spirit Energy Healing

Curious about energy healing?

Learn from a therapist who works with people all over the world without leaving his home.

The intent of this one day training is to introduce you to basic healing techniques you can share with friends and family. Secondly, it is an opportunity to improve intuitive awareness and expand your range of energy use. The day includes individual activation, resetting and adjustment of each participants energy coding. This workshop is much more than simply learning a technique. No experience necessary...the art of healing is open to everyone.

What we will cover...

- Understanding yourself as an energy being
- Channeling healing energy for hands-on healing
- Opportunity to practise and receive healing
- Energy management and protection for all aspects of life
- This includes your work environment

No experience necessary.

The art of healing is open to everyone.

To be conducted in the City of Ipswich, QLD. Venue to be advised.
