

"Every animal has his or her story, his or her thoughts, daydreams, and interests. All feel joy and love, pain and fear, as we now know beyond any shadow of a doubt. All deserve that the human animal afford them the respect of being cared for with great consideration for those interests or left in peace."

Quote by Ingrid E. Newkirk, an English-born British-American animal rights activist and the president of People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals, the world's largest animal rights organization.

We receive many common questions from our clients and rather than reinvent the wheel, so to speak, I want to offer some existing information that is in the public domain. The following comes from information as channelled by Lee Carroll for Kryon.

Humans and Animals

The Human Being's soul is a piece of God and is unique on the planet. However, biologically, the Human is not an animal of Earth. In fact, your unique Human chemistry proves it, since you have "fused DNA" that creates the 23 chromosome separation from the rest of Earth biology. You did NOT evolve from Earth! The Human species as you see it today is not the Human species of 200,000 years ago. So the first realisation for you is that your entire corporeal existence is not as "an animal of your planet", despite what biologists will tell you. There was help along the way with an "awakening to light and dark" within your DNA. Even the most basic of religions tell you about this event as the divine "creation story" common to all humanity. The Human you are today is unique to the Universe and has amazing creative powers, just as the masters of the earth all told you.

Animals have their own kinds of energies, and even some of them have their own kinds of animal soul-groups. Animals are on the planet for several reasons, and we've told you all this before. However, all of them are on the planet as part of the balance of Gaia, and many as friends to Humans. They hold the energy of life for Earth, and sometimes they are here to love.

Certain kinds of animals have animal souls and incarnate within their own groups, but always in service to humanity. Their own soul groups come back as animals – only animals. They do not cross the soul barrier into a Higher-Self being. Animals do not graduate into Human Beings. But it is very easy for Humans to think they do, because this is the way Human thought has always worked for you. In your opinion, you graduate into higher levels and then you become better. Therefore, those who would look at the scheme of life would probably say, "A soul starts as an animal and then works its way up to become Human." However, this is not the case and never was, dear one.

A Human Being has a beautiful Higher-Self, which is the core soul of God energy. The puzzle during your life is about how much of this truth of being part of the creator you can accept. How far can you open the quantum door to see this truth when you are alive? This single attribute determines how enlightened you become during life. Listen: It's not how much knowledge and experience in is your Akash, but how much you allow yourself to believe it.

There are many old souls on this planet who have an amazing amount of spiritual learning, yet they don't want to touch that "spiritual jar" within them at this point in their lives. This is the free choice of the Human Being we speak about. There is immense planning that puts you at the Wind of Birth. What did you accomplish during the last lives, if anything? Who were you and what did you do? What energies did you start that were not complete that you wish to continue? What soul group were you in? Who were your parents? Are you in certain soul agreements to become their grandchildren? That is more common than you think! There are so many things that go into the planning of the "entry energy" of your life, and each life potential is different and unique. The planning is done by you when you have "the mind of God" on my side of the veil.

Humans don't like the fact that there is no generic spiritual instruction manual that states, "Here is what happens and here is what to do." Listen, dear ones, humanity is honored way above that! Are all your children the same? Do books on how to raise children always work for your child? The answer is no, because each soul is totally unique. But Humans still wish to have a list of things to do and not to do, as though each soul somehow came out of a spiritual machine that made them all the same. No. Instead, Spirit honors each soul with unique choice and a tremendous variety of energy selections.

Within a few lifetimes, many arrive at a certain state where there is an intuitive awareness of how things work on the planet. There is a better emotional balance and then that Human is a learner. Spiritual knowledge can start to be collected. Learners are an obvious category. These are the ones who are the potential awakeners, for these are the ones who have the potential to come to a place like this, hear the truth, recognize it or not, and leave. If they don't feel it's something they relate to, it just means the timing isn't right. Again, remember the axiom about returning to a less aware state? You can't. So even if you don't agree with something or act on something today, it doesn't mean you forget it. Today's foolishness can become tomorrow's wisdom. It just depends on your perception.

Timing is everything. My partner has asked many times, "Kryon, why did I have to awaken to the truth in the middle of my 40s? It would have been so much more efficient if it had been in my 30s!" The answer I have given is all about timing. It's about placing him at the age he needs to be in order to do what he does now, and also what he's going to do next. I'll get to that. And so, dear ones, those who sit in the chairs in front of me and who are reading are all in the learning category. These are often the older souls and the ones who have awakened to spiritual questions. They sense what is happening on the planet and want to know more. They have a new awareness that the energy is changing and that the earth needs them. They also know that each path is different, so they are sitting in this room now or reading this transcription with that in mind. This is the way it works, old soul.

Some of you have awakened to the spiritual truth of the "Creator inside" many times. Your library is thick with spiritual purpose. Some of you have just awakened in this lifetime and realized you're an old soul. So since you are all here listening and reading, I give you a diversion. It's a complexity you didn't expect and one for the new energy. This may be complex, but some of you are ready for it. This idea is intuitive to some here, for it's spiritual logic. I mention this only briefly, since I have given it before and it needs to be included to make the winds explanation as complete as possible.

As I have told you, inside of you there is a library of the Akash. That is to say that there is a truth that you can pull from that is universal. But in a very linear way, you also understand that you can only have in your Akashic library what you have gleaned from your lives on Earth. True or false? We have spoken of this before in this new year of 2013. The answer is, it depends on how quantum you become. Now, this is very difficult, but now I broach a subject that is completely nonlinear, so listen carefully. If it is true, dear Human Being, that you were seeded by an ascended race from another part of the galaxy [The Pleiadians], that means that you have a piece of their DNA! Everything that they know is in your DNA - and you know where I'm going with this, don't you? That means that you can awaken to great amounts of truth, but truth that is not based on Earth experience. Instead, it's there from what they gave you. This goes way beyond what we have taught you about your Akash, and takes it into a spiritual quantum Akash.

There will be some who ask, "Well then, we come in with that, right? Even the newbie has that? So why don't we remember it as well?" The answer is this: In the new energy [past 2013], there will be those who will start to use what we will call "quantum Akashic tools". Included in these will be the idea of "mining the Akash" [an attribute we have given before] and also the idea of "quantum Akashic inheritance", which will be the beginning of remembering original galactic ancestor knowledge. This will eventually lead to quantum invention on the planet. As Humans become more quantum in their evolution, they will start to pick up these new tools. It's DNA related, and we have spoken of it many times. It's "remembering". But these things will only begin happening to the oldest souls among you, for it happens only after full realization of "God inside".

Some Humans have gone through a near-death experience and explained it the best they could, but they all say they came back different. Oh, Human Being, they saw a piece of it; they saw a piece of the creator and when they came back, they exclaimed to you, "You won't believe it! I was dead for a moment and I heard singing and saw light." Just ask them and they'll tell you. So this is the gift of transition that we have never talked about before. There is no sting in death, Human Being. The only sting is for the ones who remain and don't know where you are. They feel you are gone forever, but you are not. Neither are the souls of those you have lost over the years, dear listener and reader. Did you know that the parents you may have lost will be with you till your last breath? They are holding your hand the whole time.

This is complex, but it's part of a beautiful, multidimensional system of soul grouping. Some of you know I'm right, since you have sensed them. Human Beings, you have to know that your soul group can be in several places at the same time. We've given you that information before. Souls can be reincarnated somewhere else on the planet as a corporeal Human, and also be with you at the same time as what you call a guide.

Don't ask the question about "how", because it won't make any sense in your reality. It's a beautiful system. Death has no sting! If you lose somebody you love, I want you to remember this: They may appear still and cold and gone forever, but that's just in 3D and it's not the truth. They are alive and well and looking at you, pleading with you to see the energy of love that they represent. They are not gone.
